

The New Battlestar Galactica Fan Club

By
Chris Feehan (CureMode@curemode.com)

Check out the new Battlestar Galactica Fan Club at BattlestarFanClub.com. This club has no affiliation with the original International BSG Fan Club, it is a brand new club officially endorsed by Richard Hatch "Captain Apollo". The Battlestar Galactica Fan Club is headed by Chris Feehan (CureMode@CureMode.com), and Shawn O'Donnell(BGResurrection_1999@yahoo.com). Chris maintains the website and Shawn provides much of the Special Features content, including the extensive Interview section. The Fan Club is currently a Free service and we want to keep it that way. Due to an overwhelming number of Membership requests, we now require participation in one or more of the promotions listed on the Join Request page in the Fan Club Services section. Once we have verified your participation in one of the offers, you will be listed on the Member List and a personalized Membership Card will be sent to you free of charge. Please fill out the Feedback Form in the Special Features section and let us know what you think about the new site and what other features and services you would like the Battlestar Galactica Fan Club to provide. The Fan Club Items page in the Fan Club Services section, features a

We are fans of Battlestar Galactica and we want to see it return with the ORIGINAL CAST & THEMES. Battlestar Galactica originally aired from 1978-1980. Since then there has been an effort to try to revive the show in it's original form. Richard Hatch "Captain Apollo" has been working for the past few years to have a new Battlestar Galactica television series or movie project put into production. His vision is to ignore the events in Galactica 1980 and continue the original story line 20 years later with the original cast, some new faces, and even deadlier Cylons. He has raised over 60 million dollars in commitments and has reunited the original cast to reprise their roles in the project. Mr. Hatch has already produced a trailer for his proposed Battlestar Galactica project, and the reaction so far has been fantastic. The BattlestarGalactica.com site has latest developments and production stills from the trailer.

Now is the time to voice your interest in seeing "Battlestar Galactica : Second Coming" put into production. Never underestimate the power a letter from a fan can generate, the statistics usually indicate that one letter = 200 fans to a studio. Write to the individuals using The Revival Letters and Addresses provided and make your voice heard, be sure to indicate you want to see Battlestar Galactica return with the ORIGINAL CAST & THEMES. Please distribute the provided Revival Flyer wherever possible, especially at Sci-Fi and Comic Conventions, to help spread the word and get others involved. ❖

DragonCon2000 Report

By

Dan Bollinger (bollingerj@worldnet.att.net)

Well, Dragon Con 2000 has come and gone. There were lots of guests (as usual). Walter Koenig, Chase Masterson, Robert O'Riley, Bill Mumy, Angela Cartwright, Brad Doruf, and Andreas Katsulas are just a few of those in attendance. From "Battlestar Galactica", there was Richard Hatch, Jack Stauffer, Herb Jefferson and (as a last-minute surprise) Richard Lynch. This was Mr. Lynch's very first convention appearance! He was very friendly and outgoing to all that spoke to him. Truly, one of the best guests at the convention.

On Friday, everyone got to see the Richard Hatch BSG: Second Coming trailer. As usual, it was given the usual standing ovation. Mr. Hatch also showed a one minute "making of" opening to "The Great War of Magellan". What was shown looked very interesting, even though there was no story to follow. Richard Hatch was joined on stage by Jack Stauffer and Richard Lynch. Mr. Lynch was a surprisingly funny speaker. Before leaving, the trailer was shown once more to another thunderous applause from the near-capacity audience. Later that evening, Mr. Stauffer entertained fans with his Cabaret act. He sang various showtunes mixed with a very funny roasting of Richard Hatch. In all, it lasted about an hour and it was great. He has a very good singing voice. If you have a chance to see this act, don't miss it.

The costume contest was a blast this year. The best part was the emcees-Andreas Katsulas and Chase Masterson. They worked great together and were quite funny. The best parts were when someone would go onstage and do a stupid routine. Andreas would basically "gong" them by saying things that really embarrassed the person. You may think that sounds cruel, but these people really deserved it. Nothing ruins a good costume faster than a bad routine. It would have been nice to see more Galactica costumes, but that would have taken away from the hundreds of Jedi's and Stormtroopers that were running around. Maybe next year.❖
